Early College Faculty as a New Pathway for PhD Graduates
• 5 Bard High School Early Colleges
  • A.A. degree granting, all students on A.A. track
  • 4 grades
    • High school: 9th grade & 10th grade
    • College: Year 1 & Year 2
  • Unified early college & high school faculty
  • Partnered with public district schools

Bard Early Colleges: Our Network of Schools
Bard Early Colleges: Our Network of Schools

- Bard High School Early Colleges
  - BHSEC Manhattan (NY), founded 2001
  - BHSEC Queens (NY), founded 2008
  - BHSEC Newark (NJ), founded 2011
  - BHSEC Cleveland (OH), founded 2014
  - BHSEC Baltimore (MD), founded 2015
3 Bard Early College Centers

- College credit granting, 24-32 credits
- For selected students who attend other high schools
- College courses only, taught by Bard Early College faculty
- Partnered with public charter and district schools
- Bard Early College New Orleans (LA), founded 2008
- Bard Early College Center at Harlem Children’s Zone (NY), Promise Academy, founded 2013
- Bard Early College – Hudson (NY) Initiative, founded 2016

Bard Early Colleges: Our Network of Schools
Bard Early Colleges
Student Demographics

Race/Ethnicity

- African-American: 40%
- Hispanic: 16%
- White: 26%
- Asian/Pacific Islander: 15%
- Other: 3%

[Pie chart showing the distribution of race/ethnicity among students]
BHSEC Newark
Student Demographics

Race/Ethnicity

- African-American: 71%
- Hispanic: 23%
- White: 3%
- Asian/Pacific Islander: 3%

---

BHSEC Newark
Student Demographics
• Active and accomplished experts in their fields of study, embodying a depth of intellectual engagement that inspires younger scholars.
• Selected on the basis of both strength of collegiate academic work and interest in working with younger students.
• 70% of full-time faculty hold a PhD or other terminal degree in their field of study and have prior college teaching experience.
• In the BHSEC model, faculty teach both high school and college courses.
• All full-time faculty become certified to teach in high school by local departments of education.

Bard Early Colleges: Our Faculty
Number of Faculty
by number of years teaching at that campus
Includes both full-time and part-time faculty (202 total)
John B. Weinstein, Ph.D.
Dean of the Early Colleges, Bard College
Principal, Bard High School Early College – Newark
Faculty in Chinese & Theater, Bard High School Early College – Newark
Faculty in Chinese & Asian Studies, Bard College at Simon’s Rock (on leave)
Former Faculty at Bard High School Early College– Manhattan
jweinstein@bhsec.bard.edu
Ena A. Harris, Ph.D.
Faculty in English, Bard High School Early College – Newark
Former Faculty at Bard High School Early College – Manhattan
eharris@bhsec.bard.edu

The Panelists:
Our Professional Journies
John Lewis Adams, Ph.D.
Faculty in History, Bard High School Early College – Cleveland
jadams@bhsec.bard.edu
William H. Hinrichs, Ph.D.
Associate Dean Studies, Bard High School Early College – Manhattan
Faculty in Spanish, Bard High School Early College – Manhattan
Former Faculty at Bard High School Early College – Queens whinrichs@bhsec.bard.edu
Examples of Collegiate Culture

- Hannah Arendt Conference at Bard -- Annandale

- Bard Globalization and International Affairs Program Off Campus Classes

- Dean's Hour Performance and Lecture Series
  - Panel led by New York Times Opinions Editor Aaron Retica and colleagues on presidential election for whole community
  - Lecture by world-renowned Woolf scholar and Pace University Professor Mark Hussey on To the Lighthouse for Sophomore Seminar Students
  - Lecture by Metropolitan Museum of Art Curator Melanie Holcolmb on her recent exhibit, “Jerusalem 1000-1400: Every People Under Heaven” for whole community
  - Lecture and discussion on Kafka by Bard College Professor Franz Kempf for First Year Seminar students
Examples of Collegiate Culture

• Divisional Meetings at Hub Campus in Annandale
• Faculty Development Fund
• Faculty Notes
• Matriculation Ceremony
• Partnership with Historical Society of the New York Courts (HSNYC)
• Rotating Visiting Professors
Recruiting and Hiring
John B. Weinstein  jweinstein@bhsec.bard.edu

Ena A. Harris  eharris@bhsec.bard.edu

John Lewis Adams  jadams@bhsec.bard.edu

William (Bill) H. Hinrichs  whinrichs@bhsec.bard.edu

Website:  www.bard.edu/bhsec

Contact Us!