What are possible learning outcomes of an Academic Coaching program for your students? Consider empowering students to: identify current strengths; adopt a reflective approach to academic success; or, explore evidence-based learning strategies.

What resources would be needed to design, implement, and sustain an Academic Coaching program? Consider needs of student population to be served and scope of the program.

Who are potential champions and possible naysayers? How can they be brought into dialogue and potential partnership via Academic Coaching?