

Ohio PKAL STEM Teaching Partnership 2018

PROGRAM SUMMARY: The Ohio PKAL STEM Teaching Partnership grant provides up to $500 for a multi-institutional team to visit each other's institutions to observe class and laboratory sessions and share effective pedagogical techniques. Teaching Partnership grant recipients will be announced during the 2018 Annual Ohio PKAL Conference, Promoting Effective Learning in a Diverse STEM Environment, University of Mount Union, May 19, 2018.

ELIGIBILITY: At least one of the co-submitters must be a fulltime STEM or STEM-education faculty member at an Ohio college or university.

AWARD SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

- Names and institutional addresses of all Teaching Partnership team members.
- A narrative (500 word maximum) describing:
 - What the team members expect to gain from the partnership.
 - What class or laboratory session the team members plan to observe (must include at least one visit to each institution represented by the Teaching Partnership team members).
 - How team members expect to incorporate the experience into their own teaching.
 - Acknowledgement that the team will present a poster of their experience at the 2019 Ohio PKAL conference; the poster must identify that the project was funded, in part, by an Ohio PKAL STEM Teaching Partnership grant.
- A brief timeline.
- A proposed budget; allowable items include:
 - Cost of round-trip travel between institutions, reimbursed at the Internal Revenue Service 2018 standard mileage rate of 54.5 cents per mile.
 - Overnight lodging accommodations.
 - Meals for team members.
- A vita for all Teaching Partnership team members.
- Submit all documents in pdf format (one email with multiple documents is acceptable) to akarkows@capital.edu.

Partnerships that incorporate STEM graduate students who plan to pursue a teaching career and partnerships among junior faculty are strongly encouraged.

Upon receipt, all applications become the property of Ohio PKAL. Application materials will not be returned. Late or faxed applications will not be accepted. Complete applications must be received by March 30, 2018. Applicants will be notified by April 30, 2018. Questions: Send email to Dr. Andrea M. Karkowski at akarkows@capital.edu.
