Visit Request Form for International Visitors

The Association of American Colleges and Universities (AAC&U) is the leading national association concerned with the quality, vitality, and public standing of undergraduate liberal education. Its members are committed to extending the advantage of a liberal education to all students, regardless of their academic specialization or intended career. Founded in 1915, AAC&U now represents the entire spectrum of American colleges and universities—large and small, public and private, two-year and four-year.

We are pleased that you are interested in visiting AAC&U. Please complete this form so that we know best how to respond to your needs. You may submit it by fax: 202-265-9532 or email: presidentsoffice@aacu.org.
