Supporting faculty, staff, & students through global engagement programming
Kara Fulton | kafulton@usf.edu
Sommer Mitchell | snmitche@usf.edu
Global Citizens Project | University of South Florida | www.usf.edu/gcp Wouldn’t it be great if…?
USF Global Citizens Project Program Descriptions

Faculty
1. Global Scholars Circuit
   a. Semester-long series where faculty, staff, and students “drop in” to certified global courses.
   b. www.usf.edu/gcp/being-a-global-citizen/gsc.aspx
2. Global Certification Express
   a. One-day workshop to help faculty prepare a global course certification proposal.
   b. www.usf.edu/gcp/faculty-staff/global-workshops.aspx
3. Global Faculty Fellowship ($$)
   a. Semester-long faculty learning community to help faculty prepare a global course certification proposal.
   b. www.usf.edu/gcp/faculty-staff/funding-opportunities.aspx
4. Feature Friday
   a. Weekly post that features global faculty, students, courses, and campus events.
   b. www.facebook.com/usfgcp

Students
1. Around the Globe in 50 days
   a. Global content and issues are featured every day during the first 50 days of fall semester.
   b. Connected to USF’s campus-wide First 50 Days programming.
   c. www.facebook.com/usfgcp

2. Getting Globally Engaged
   a. Workshop series focused on global engagement via research, internships, coursework, study abroad/away, and community service.
   b. www.facebook.com/pg/usfgcp/events
3. GloBull Olympics
   a. Game night with global trivia and prizes.
   b. Co-sponsored with the GCP student organization.
4. Sustain-A-Bull Workshops
   a. Workshop series focused on the UN Sustainable Development Goals.
   b. www.facebook.com/pg/usfgcp/events

Student Affairs (SA) Staff
1. CRE Book Club
   a. Book club focused on the university’s Common Reading Experience (CRE).
   b. One book club for general staff, one for those teaching USF’s first year experience course, Academic Foundations.

Staff
1. Sustain-A-Bull Staff
   a. A different UN Sustainable Development Goal is discussed during each Global Citizens Project staff meeting.